Strengthening the System through Partnerships 2008 Report to Stakeholders is now available to the public

CUSOURCE Credit Union Knowledge Network (CUSOURCE Knowledge Network) is pleased to announce that the 2008 Report to Stakeholders - the summary of the company's accomplishments, challenges and successes during the past year - is now available to the public. View a copy of this report here.

For CUSOURCE Knowledge Network, 2008 was a year of change and growth. While focusing on a technology upgrade, the company continued to partner with credit unions, Centrals, and other organizations to deliver new learning opportunities and services. In particular, the Member Service Representative (MSR) Start Series program was launched, as well as the online Project Management Library and new online courses such as Preventing Investment Fraud and TFSA Fundamentals.

Our partnership with the Canadian Business Owner Strategy (CBOS) also flourished and saw the development and launch of the Business Relationship Manager (BRM) Career Development Program. This program is now assisting credit unions recruit and develop commercial lending talent in today's competitive employment marketplace.

The year ahead is promising to be a busy and successful. Already released to the system are: an updated anti-money laundering course, and a group of subscriptions to the Leadership KnowledgeCenter[™] - an innovative online learning portal focused on nurturing and developing leadership talent.

CUSOURCE Knowledge Network was built by and for Canadian credit unions. The success of the company speaks to the spirit of co-operation that is alive and well in our system today. We thank credit unions for their support, and we look forward to continued development and growth together.

Now in its sixth year of operation, CUSOURCE Knowledge Network is a non-for-profit organization and a wholly owned subsidiary of Credit Union Central of Canada.
